WITH SPRING APPROACHING, new life is around us, in all the things that grow. There is also much life and joy in the company of others...		Pray that 1 women in prison in our area will have access to sound spiritual support.	Pray for those 2 who will be released from prison – it is very difficult to find housing.	Thank God for 3 our volunteer coordinators, as we await the return of in-person visits.	Pray for the 4 mental health and well-being of incarcerated people.	Give thanks 5 for God's continued blessings on our programs!
Pray for our 6 staff and volunteers as they walk with those who've been released from prison.	Pray for 7 institutional staff. Ask God to grant them health, safety, compassion, and wisdom.	Pray for 8 Luminita as she continues to find ways for volunteers to connect with their matches.	Pray for the 9 man who wants to start a truth and reconciliation program with a Christian angle.	Pray for S, 10 who is struggling to find decent affordable housing.	Pray for D.S. 11 He is moving to minimum for the first time after 30 years in prison.	Continue to 12 pray for Al and his wife, Jean. Al has finished radiation yet has other health concerns.
Pray for S as 13 he recovers from surgery.	Continue to 14 pray that the prisons would soon reopen to in-person visits and volunteer programs.	Pray for 15 spiritual and physical healing for C, who is undergoing chemo.	Please pray 16 that we find a new volunteer coordinator for ACCW in Maple Ridge.	Pray for 17 everyone at FVI as they deal with shutdowns, reduced staff hours, and fewer programs.	Give thanks 18 for all of our volunteers who are keeping in touch with their matches.	Continue to 19 pray for Glenn as he directs our programs.
Pray for R.R., 20 who has a hernia but can't have surgery due to his high blood pressure.	Give thanks 21 for the volunteers who serve at our Hidden Treasures stores.	Pray for 22 people, both in prison and the community, with substance use disorders.	Ask God 23 to heal relationships that have been strained by crime and incarceration.	Give thanks 24 for our board members! Pray that God will grant them wisdom.	Pray for 25 people who are looking for work, that they would find stable employment	Give thanks 26 for the generosity of those who financially support our organization.
Pray for folks 27 at institutions who are experiencing mental health challenges.	Give thanks 28 for Raymond's leadership. Pray for his continued health.	Ask God 29 to grant education opportunities to people in prison and on parole.	Pray that 30 families of incarcerated people have access to affordable, healthy food.	Praise God 31 for all those who volunteer with M2/W2 and Hidden Treasures!	In this, let's serve each other with kindness, compassion, and love, which, as Paul writes in Colossians, "binds everything together." Let's celebrate new life and share our praises and struggles with God.
